Work on Part of Camp Meeting Road in Bell Acres to Begin on July 26

PITTSBURGH – The Department of Public Works announced today that work on Camp Meeting Road between Beech Ridge Drive and Fern Hollow Road in Bell Acres Borough will begin at 7 a.m. on Monday, July 26, 2021. The project, which is expected to last until October 2021, includes replacement of a culvert called Little Sewickley Creek Bridge No. 7 and repairs to the roadway.

That section of Camp Meeting Road has been closed since July 12, 2019 when storms caused part of the culvert and roadway to collapse. Traffic is being detoured using Camp Meeting Road Extension, Big Sewickley Creek Road, and Rochester Road.

The $293,609 emergency project is being done by Pugliano Construction Co., Inc., of Pittsburgh.
